

Pigini Accordion Exhibition and Their Story with Francesca Pigini.

Our story began way back in 1946; a full 79 years of activity and great passion for our work. We produce acoustic accordions and converters of the highest quality, specially developed to best meet the musical needs of every performer. Our instruments embody the perfect fusion of knowledge, tradition, technology, and craftsmanship. Every PIGINI accordion is a "100% Made in Italy" product, handcrafted by our master artisans, who pay the utmost attention and precision to every detail at every stage of production. At our meeting, you can discover the fascinating and melodious world of the accordion, a musical instrument symbolic of Italian tradition.
